Pet Ordinance Limits Cats In Homes

Humane Society Has Concerns About Imposing Restrictions

POSTED: 7:53 am EST
January 5, 2006

Pet owners in Bloomfield Township are facing new restrictions.

A new city ordinance limits homes to two cats and they must have rabies shots.

Other communities are considering limits on dogs and cats as well as a complete ban on some exotic pets.

The Michigan Humane Society said the laws may be well-intended, but could restrict responsible people from giving homes to abandoned pets.

Auburn Hills is considering amending its city code to impose pet limits, too.
